

OUR FOUNDER

My motivation for starting Unforsaken is I know there are a lot of people trying to navigate recovery on their own. They need a friend and an advocate who has been there to walk with them.

TESTIMONIALS

JOSH & SHANA WRIGHT

August 13, 2018 was a pivotal day for my wife and I. We believed our own lie for so long that we had our addiction under control but on that day, we realized that the one in control was our addiction. A string of bad decisions had left me hospitalized. I was cut and sewn together on the outside but left with a brokenness on the inside. I don't speak this out of sadness but out of praise that God and only God has taken the brokenness and replaced it with a peace that surpasses all understanding.

After I was released from the hospital my wife was referred to the Lovelady center in Birmingham by some members of our church and two days later, she embarked on a life changing opportunity. That's also the same time that we were first put in contact with Glenn.

Within seconds of calling him for the first time I felt at ease. As if I were talking to a close friend. We had no idea where to begin but thankfully he was able to walk us through the process and prepare us for the journey ahead.

As my wife began her journey to recovery in Birmingham, I also began mine at home. I made a two hour drive every weekend to visit the Lovelady center. It was a true blessing to be there in person and witness God's work in the lives of so many people. People that may not have had a chance to be there if it weren't for Glenn's compassion and caring to reach out to the ones that the world has turned their backs on.

On April 19th of the following year, I watched my wife walk across the stage and receive her diploma for graduating from the Lovelady center. We are now closing in on four years of sobriety. We never lost contact with Glenn. We actually call on him quite often. He showed us by caring for us with that very first phone call that you can have a huge impact on someone's life. So now my wife and I seek to help others around us find the help they need with addiction and Glenn has been our "go to" as I call him to help us help them.

AMBER BROWNING

My name is Amber Browning. I met Glenn when I was in active addiction in 2011. Glenn & his wife Marti were the first & only people I knew that loved me correctly.

Through their example I was finally able to grasp how relentless & unconditional God's love for me is.

They stuck with me for years while I tried & failed multiple times. Every single word spoken in the midst of failure was nothing but LOVE. Glenn supported me in many court hearings regarding custody of my children & legal matters.

He was & is always there for me & my family & it is truly humbling that God loved me enough to put him in our lives.

DONNA BAIRD (DAVIS)

When my daughters were dealing with substance abuse problems, Glenn was there with valuable resources and support. He threw out a lifeline of support, caring and empathy. In the direst of situations, Glenn is able to show how a combination of discipline and compassion can strengthen relationships, resolve conflicts and heal lives.

His knowledge of addiction and his capacity to change lives is invaluable in this world and much needed. Having the ability to connect to those in need and make a difference is one of his many gifts.

He definitely made a difference with my family. I cannot thank him enough.

And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."
